Fair weather; northwest winds.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer and some other papers are making as big fools of themselves over Crank Coxe and his commonwealth business as Coxe and his fellow cranks are.

EX-SECRETARY FOSTER will not be able to pay his creditors 25 cents on the dollar, and yet he goes ahead criticizing the financial policy of the administration just as if the people placed a one-hundred-cents-on-the-dollar valuation on his opinions, says the New York World.

THE Portsmouth Times, commencing this afternoon, will hereafter issue a daily edition. The Times is one of the brightest and best papers in the Ohio Valley, and being the only Democratic journal at Portsmouth will no doubt prove a success from the start as a daily. As a weekly it has always prospered.

THE St. Louis Post-Dispatch condenses the entire argument thus: "A high tariff corrupts elections, makes employers greedy, glutts home markets, creates trusts, closes mills and factories, cuts off our foreign markets, crowds the labor market, brings on strikes, overtakes the poor and deadens the moral sense of the Nation. Why stop to debate such a monstrosity?"

PERSONAL.

Miss Sue Gibson, of Salem, Mo., is visiting Mrs. E. A. Robinson.

Miss Carrie Barkley, of Covington, is a guest of Miss Belle Barkley.

Miss Bettie Welsh, of St. Joseph, Mo., is the guest of Miss Margaret Finch.

Miss Bessie Owens returns to school at Avondale, Cincinnati, this afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson, of Germantown, is in town visiting her son, Mr. W. C. Johnson.

Mrs. Alice Boyd, of Minerva, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Pickrell, of East Second street.

Mrs. C. B. Pearce, Jr., and children, have taken up their residence at 118 East Second, Covington.

Mrs. Emile Frey was called to Cincinnati Sunday by the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Carolina Frey.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Frazee, of Lexington, returned home Saturday after a visit at Dover and Minerva.

Editor Duley, of the Times-Democrat, was down from Flemingsburg Saturday, visiting his brother, Mr. John Duley.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Green, of Danville, are here to attend the golden wedding of Hon. James Barbour and wife.

Mr. Oscar McDougle, who has a run on the C. and O. as messenger for the Adams Express Company, spent Sunday with his parents.

Cincinnati Enquirer: "Mrs. Herbert Reno and baby, Frances, are spending Easter with Mrs. Reno's mother, Mrs. Phister, in Maysville."

Assistant editor Dunn, of the Higginsport Enterprise, and Captain Taylor, of the new packet, Enos Taylor, called on the BULLETIN Saturday.

HAVE you seen those beautiful spoons at Murphy's jewelry store? A fac simile of the Cox Building in bowl of spoon, a very acceptable Easter gift for a friend.

A "CALAMITY HOWLER"

Admits That the Business Outlook is Brightening—Bad Reports Have Been Exaggerated.

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette prints three columns of facts to prove that business is brightening, and that is quite a clever and heroic piece of work for a calamity organ to engage in, says the Ashland News.

The Commercial Gazette states that three-fourths of the regular force in the iron and steel mills and factories of Allegheny are again employed, and the unemployed class will shortly be in the old places.

A significant feature of this review is the statement of the President of the Flint Glass Workers' Union, who is quoted as saying that the reports of the number and state of the unemployed have been greatly exaggerated. Common sense has overtaken some of the "calamity" organs at last, but the cost of their declarations will never be known.

And the Cincinnati Tribune, another Republican journal, had something Sunday on the same subject. It said: "The trend of opinion is that the tide has turned, that the gloom of the evil days has gone with the gloom of the winter. The mere fact that values have stopped declining, in itself, a ray of hopefulness. That some things have taken an upward start is a still better indication."

"Not so long since discouragement was over all. Confidence between merchant and merchant, between banker and borrower, was entirely absent. The financial situation was clouded with uncertainty. Personal energy was wanting and no one had sand enough to attempt to check the downward tendency so unfortunately manifest in every direction."

"These symptoms characterized the past; the present is characterized by hopefulness. All other bright indications will follow in its train."

Only $1.50 Round Trip.

Don't forget the C. and O. excursion to Cincinnati Wednesday, March 28th. Tickets good going on all regular trains of March 28th, and good returning on special excursion train leaving Cincinnati (Fourth Street Depot) 11:30 p. m. the same day; also on trains 2, 18 and 20 leaving Cincinnati 8 a. m., 2:15 p. m. and 5:15 p. m. Thursday, March 29th. Great attractions at all of the Cincinnati theatres, the greatest of which is James J. Corbett, in "Gentleman Jack" at the Walnut. Don't miss it.

Recovered His Speech.

A special from Dover says: "James Pretlow, an old soldier, aged fifty-two, has recovered his speech after being deprived of it for over four years. In January, 1891, Pretlow became suddenly dumb while sitting in a grocery. One night last week, about 11 o'clock, his wife was awakened by a yell from her husband, and was astonished to hear him call her name. The gift of speech so suddenly taken from him had, after many years, returned. Pretlow talks as usual, although he has very little control over his voice."

A Cold Wave.

A cold wave struck this section late Saturday evening, and the temperature dropped to the freezing point during the night. There was ice Sunday morning. This morning it was still worse, as the thermometers registered twelve degrees below freezing.

Early vegetation and the fruit are undoubtedly seriously damaged. Many trees were in full bloom, and much gardening has been done.

Death of Mrs. Carolina Frey.

Mrs. Carolina Frey died Friday at her home, 447 Vine street, Cincinnati, aged sixty-seven years. She was the widow of the late Baldus Frey, of this city, and resided in Maysville up to a few years ago. The funeral occurred this morning at St. Ludwig's Church, Cincinnati, and the remains will be brought here today for burial.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court, heretofore known as the Court of Claims, will convene Tuesday, April 3rd. Quarterly Court will meet the Tuesday following.

Under the new Constitution there are two terms of the Fiscal Court each year, one in the spring and one in the fall, —April and October.

The Dancing Wonders.

The Ravey Sisters, will positively appear here with the American Vaudeville. These young ladies made a decided hit during the company's long stay at the Empire Theatre, Chicago, and in novelty dancing they are said to be unexcelled.

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.
